Our Voices

Each week we hope to pick one person's "voice" to put in this space in the newsletter to share with others . . . sort of an ongoing testimony of our diverse church family. This may take many forms (bearing in mind that these have to fit within our newsletter 😊):

- a poem
- a Bible verse that stood out to you
- an answered prayer
- words of encouragement
- a special memory
- something you learned
- a drawing
- something else?

Contributions from our precious children are very welcome!

Any suggestions for a title for this section of the newsletter would also be appreciated.

- Please email any contributions to Jennifer (rivervalleybaptist@gmail.com) and reference as "My voice".

Then the LORD reached out his hand and touched my mouth and said to me, "I have put my words in your mouth." Jeremiah 1:9

Missionary News – Christine Birt in Uganda

Hello dear Saints, and all who love us here in Uganda.

Last week I was annoyed with the way everything was NOT happening in my home, and went out. I walked down to the church, and began to talk to the Lord about it. I felt tired, as I was sitting in a chair, I slipped into sleep for a few minutes. I felt like I was being lifted up, and when I sat up, I found that I was covered in a glittering gold dust!! It was all over my clothes, and my arms. I held my skirt up, and went to the door, and called Pastor Osika to come. I asked him if he could see the glittering dust, and Yes he saw it. We went into church, and he saw it was even on my face, and round my mouth. I am not understanding this, but this I know, I was very happy, and am still happy up to today. Unfortunately it disappeared like snowflakes when you come into the warmth. That is all for today.

Yours in the love of the Living Lord Jesus, Christine
